Electric forklifts

Electric forklifts do not give off harmful exhaust fumes like diesel or LPG forklifts do. This makes them ideal for indoor businesses, such as warehouses, food processing, or other industries sensitive to fumes. They are also more friendly to both your employees' and the planet's health, thanks to zero emissions. Electric forklifts offer numerous benefits, including lower operating costs, less maintenance, operator comfort, and a quieter operation.

Have questions? Call or email and we will do our best to help you out!

Rampmaster Dock Plate

Maximum capacity 3,000lbs

This dock plate is to be used to bridge the gap between your dock and truck trailer. The gradual bend at the edges keep it flush with the dock. The diamond plate is skid resistant. There are safety legs to keep the plate secure between the dock and trailer. Best of all, it's portable.
